Alpha Media Holdings (AMH), the publishers of the NewsDay, the Zimbabwe Independent and the Standard Newspapers, will this October in honour on Breast Cancer Awareness month. Alpha Media Holdings has strong links with the community and takes a thought leadership role in informing, educating to increase awareness and reduce the stigma associated with Breast Cancer. AMH will be hosting a High Tea in honour of those affected by Breast Cancer and celebrating the survivors.

We are inviting our clients from various sectors of the economy, our readers from all our publications to spend a fabulous entertaining and informative afternoon with us. The Cancer Association of Zimbabwe will provide a speaker to demonstrate the following:

- how the ladies can test for Breast Cancer.
- how we can get involved as individuals
- how we can support those affected.
